Plenary Indulgence

The statue of Our Lady of Fatima has been and will be displayed until October 13 of this year, as there is a plenary indulgence granted for those who honor Our Lady of Fatima on the 13th day of the month.

Under the mandate of Pope Francis, the Church's centennial celebration of the apparitions of Fatima features a special plenary indulgence (the complete remission of all temporal punishment due to sin) from Nov. 27, 2016 to Nov. 26, 2017.

The plenary indulgence of the jubilee is granted:

a) to the faithful who visit the Shrine of Fatima in pilgrimage and devoutly participate in a celebration or prayer in honor of the Virgin Mary, pray the Our Father, recite the Creed, and invoke Our Lady of Fatima;

b) to the faithful who visit with devotion an image of Our Lady of Fatima solemnly displayed for veneration in any church, or adequate place, during the days of the anniversary of the apparitions (13th of each month to October), and devotedly participate in any celebration or prayer in honor of the Virgin Mary, pray the Our Father, recite the Creed and invoke Our Lady of Fatima;

c) to the faithful who, due to their age, disease, or other serious reason, are impeded from moving, if, repentant of all their sins and having the firm intention of performing, as soon as possible, the three conditions mentioned below, in front of a small image of Our Lady of Fatima, spiritually unite in the days of the apparitions to the jubilee celebrations, offering with trust to God, all-merciful through Mary, their prayers and pains, or the sacrifices of their own lives.

A plenary indulgence can be gained once a day. In order to obtain it, the faithful must, in addition to being in the state of grace

- _have the interior disposition of complete
- detachment from sin, even venial sin;
- have sacramentally confessed their sins;
- receive the Holy Eucharist
- pray for the intentions of the Holy Father

Capuchin Youth Leadership Training,
Aug 25-27, 2017

This proven program will benefit teens, families, youth groups and parishes! Leadership training maximizes the potential, productivity, and results of youth.

Youth develop skills in communications, critical thinking, leadership, problem solving, and human relations. Leaders need these skills to be effective in their roles. At the same time, youth learn about character, values, and ethics. Youth build confidence and receive current, cutting edge techniques, strategies and solutions.

Youth receive current information on leadership challenges, the traits of leaders, what it takes to lead, motivating others, how to resolve conflict, dealing with difficult people, effective presentation skills, etiquette, practical money skills and more.

Youth gain experience through service learning projects with mentors who serve as positive role models.

A solid youth leadership program sets teenagers on the right path - one paved with opportunity.
